Leaves on the apricots are starting to drop now.

Autumn weather has come at last. But so far it has been a beautiful autumn with extremely mild weather. (winds still from the north).

We are still picking strawberries and with the mild weather they seem to be getting bigger and better.

hard to beat home made cake with Tassie's best icecream and fresh fruit. Always a winning combo

What a nice time to drop in for one of our special desserts. Home made fruit pies or our super fruity Summer Puddings seem to be the winners at this time of year.

Berry fruity crepes are great in winter
